Engineering Driven Safety Focused Solutions

INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

Equipment Rental

Hydratight offers the widest variety of bolting and machining tools from one trusted source. We are focused on providing complete operational flexibility, with a vast range of high performance products manufactured in-house and available for sale or rental worldwide.

The unique flexibility of the Hydratight approach is designed to ensure our customers receive totally satisfactory and cost-effective service at every stage. With our industry-leading product range, whether you choose to rent or purchase, you will experience outstanding value in both bolting and machining.

We work with our customers to understand their projects and to define the best solution for their needs, timeframe and location of work. Using the combined skills of our technical teams and advanced technologies such as our Bolt-Up software to analyze existing connections or determine tooling pressures, we can identify the master list of most appropriate torque, tensioning or machining equipment needed and procedures to perform safe and efficient work.

All of our products are meticulously inspected on a regular basis to ensure they meet both our stringent performance criteria and your critical facility needs. Our highly experienced specialist workforce offers the most comprehensive on-site technical services available today, providing high quality 24/7 site-based support. Their expertise is your assurance that Hydratight products will not just meet but exceed all your application needs.
